Case No. CGIT/R/53/2023
Dayaram Kumar Vs. ACC & Others

10.08.2026	Matter taken up. Mr. Rakesh Soni Learned Counsel present for workman. Mr. R.N. Vyas Learned Counsel present for management of ACC, files application (paper no. M/____) to admit on record, nineteen documents (paper no. M/____ to M/____) filed as per list. Copy of the application and documents served on Learned Counsel Mr. Rakesh Soni for Workman and Mr. K.B. Singh Learned Counsel present for M/s. Dutta Enterprises. Heard and perused record. Today is fixed for last chance for management evidence. The documents sought to be admitted on record have been filed after evidence of workman have been recorded. Ground taken that there was miscommunication between local Counsel and Counsel at Raipur. The documents sought to be admitted may be helpful in deciding the controversy in hand, but since they have been filed after closure of evidence from workman side, their admission on record will take the clock back, hence the workman side is required to be compensated adequately for the delay. Hence, the application is allowed subject to payment of Cost Rs. 5000/- by management of ACC to the workman side. On the condition of payment of cost till next date, the documents are admitted on record. Affidavit of witness from ACC, G. Kameshwar Rao as his examination in chief (paper no. M/____ to M/____), is taken on record. Copies served on workman side and contractor
